1000 PRIZES TO BE GIVEN AWAY

Allison's Toggery on Broadway has conceived a unique plan to please its many patrons.

Tomorrow the management of this popular store inaugurates one of the biggest sales held in Southeast Missouri this year. Countless bargains will be offered for one week, and everything that anybody could want will be disposed of during those seven days.

As an added attraction to this sale, Mr. Allison is going to give away more than one thousand prizes. For instance, a customer who makes a purchase, will not only get about double his money's worth, but in addition, he or she will be presented with a prize.

These quantities will go to everyone who buys one of the special boxes that have been prepared for this huge sale.

In order to install all of his new fall stock, Mr. Allison found that it would be impossible for him to keep the summer goods which he now has on hand. Rather than to overcrowd the store, he decided to place all of the summer goods in boxes and to sell them at an absolute loss. Some of this stock will be disposed of at less than two thirds of the price he paid for it at the factories.

But to make the sale especially attractive to his customers, he decided to award a thousand prizes. Many of these will be worth more than the sum paid for the boxes, which must be bought in order to obtain the present. Absolutely no charge will be made for the prizes which are to be presented to the Allison patrons.

As the prizes are limited Mr. Allison expects to receive an army of customers during the first few days of the sale. But he has made every preparation to take care of the crowds. His force has been doubled, and if necessary, he stated last night, he will again increase the size of his force.

Barney Kraft boarded the North bound passenger train this morning for St. Louis, where he will spend several days looking after some business.
